WEDDINGS

Dining at Slane Castle

We have a selection of interesting seasonal menus which can be tailored to couple's requirements. Our focus is on delicious seasonal, local and artisan ingredients, including the Estate's own organic produce and local Boyne Valley ingredients. The Castle's unique selection of dining spaces are flexible and suit many different styles depending on numbers and personal preferences

Gothic Ballroom Weddings

The amazing Neo-Gothic Ballroom was completed in 1821 for the visit of King George IV. Once an extensive library, the Ballroom was designed by Thomas Hopper and boasts one of the finest examples of Neo-Gothic works in Ireland. The marble arches and stunning ceiling all add to the charm of this unique Ballroom, which is an ideal venue for small, informal, or intimate banquets or events for up to

Courtyard Marquee Weddings

For larger weddings we offer a traditional outdoor canvas marquee which caters for 200+ guests. It is located in the Castle Courtyard right next to the Castle itself. You will still have full use of the Main Floor of the Castle, including our magnificent Great Hall for your arrival reception, Dining Room, Drawing Room, late bar in the Morning Room and our beautiful Gothic Ballroom which is the backdrop for your evening entertainment & dancing after dinner.

Intimate Weddings at the Castle

We specialise in Intimate Weddings for 15 guests & above at Slane Castle and would be delighted to tailor a Bespoke Intimate Wedding Package for you. We have a range of options and spaces available to create your unique day

At Slane Castle we offer our venue for an array of ceremonies including civil ceremonies, humanists blessings and multi denomination ceremonies. Choose our scenic Front Lawns (subject to weather conditions) or as an exceptional inside option, the magnificent Gothic Ballroom. We also have several alternative locations and options for more intimate ceremonies. Whichever beautiful space you choose is sure to add atmosphere to what will be the most memorable part of your day.

Bedrooms & Accommodation
